2. ADVISORY BUSINESS

AcmeAdvisory Wealth Management provides investment advisory services to individuals, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, and small businesses. Services offered include:

- (a) Discretionary portfolio management tailored to each client's investment objectives, risk tolerance, and financial circumstances.
- (b) Financial planning services covering retirement, education funding, estate planning, and tax considerations.
- (c) Retirement plan consulting for employer-sponsored plans, including investment menu selection and fiduciary oversight.

Ref: Form ADV Part 2A, Item 4 — Advisory Business.

3. FEES AND COMPENSATION

The Firm is compensated primarily through asset-based advisory fees. Fee rates are tiered based on assets under management. Certain services may involve fixed or hourly fees as agreed upon in the client's advisory agreement. Fees are generally billed quarterly in arrears and deducted from the client's custodial account.

- (a) Asset-based fees range from 0.50% to 1.00% annually depending on account size and service level.
- (b) Financial planning engagements are billed at a fixed fee of $1,500 to $5,000 depending on complexity.
- (c) The Firm does not receive commissions from the sale of securities or insurance products.

Ref: Form ADV Part 2A, Item 5 — Fees and Compensation.

4. PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES

The Firm does not charge performance-based fees. All compensation is based on asset levels or fixed/hourly arrangements as described above.

Ref: Form ADV Part 2A, Item 6 — Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management.

5. TYPES OF CLIENTS

The Firm provides advisory services to individuals, high-net-worth individuals, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations, and retirement plans. The minimum account size for portfolio management is $250,000, which may be waived at the Firm's discretion.

Ref: Form ADV Part 2A, Item 7 — Types of Clients.

6. METHODS OF ANALYSIS AND INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

The Firm employs fundamental, technical, and quantitative methods of analysis in formulating investment recommendations. Strategies include:

- (a) Long-term strategic asset allocation based on Modern Portfolio Theory and mean-variance optimization.
- (b) Tactical adjustments to capitalize on market dislocations or risk management opportunities.
- (c) Individual security selection emphasizing quality, valuation, and risk-adjusted return potential.
- (d) Use of exchange-traded funds, mutual funds, individual equities, and fixed income securities.

Ref: Form ADV Part 2A, Item 8 — Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss.

7. DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Neither the Firm nor any of its management persons have been the subject of any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to a client's evaluation of the Firm or the integrity of its management.

Ref: Form ADV Part 2A, Item 9 — Disciplinary Information.

8. OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

The Firm is not registered as a broker-dealer and does not have an application pending. No management person is registered or has an application pending as a registered representative of a broker-dealer. The Firm has no material relationships or arrangements with financial industry participants that create conflicts of interest.
