Please review this letter carefully, and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions before signing.

We have agreed to represent you in connection with Matter Description. Our representation will include legal research, document preparation, negotiation, and correspondence on your behalf as reasonably necessary to advance your interests in this matter. We will keep you informed of significant developments and seek your direction on material decisions.

Legal fees will be billed on an hourly basis. The applicable rates and retainer are set forth below.

The retainer deposit will be held in our client trust account and applied against future billings. Any unused portion will be refunded upon conclusion of the matter. Invoices are issued monthly and are payable within thirty (30) days of receipt. Costs and expenses — including filing fees, courier charges, expert witness fees, and travel expenses — will be billed separately.

All communications between you and this firm are protected by the attorney-client privilege. We will not disclose any confidential information without your express written consent, except as required by law or as necessary to provide the legal services described herein. This duty of confidentiality survives the termination of our engagement.

Either party may terminate this engagement at any time upon written notice. Upon termination, you will remain responsible for all fees and costs incurred through the date of termination. We will promptly return your original documents and provide copies of the file upon request, subject to payment of outstanding fees.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have read and agree to the terms of this letter, that you have had the opportunity to ask questions, and that this letter constitutes the entire agreement between you and AcmeLegal LLP regarding the representation described above.

We look forward to working with you.
